Dining & Occasional Collection

The Freeport dining and occasional range is a beautifully crafted collection that brings classic elegance and practical design together effortlessly. Featuring distinctive serpentine-framed grey washed oak tops paired with a soft light grey/off white painted finish, each piece is enhanced by gracefully turned legs that add timeless character. The dining tables are designed for everyday living and entertaining alike, with smooth reciprocal extension runners that make hosting easy, while soft-closing drawers across the range add a refined, premium touch. A wide choice of dining chairs and counter stools complements the range perfectly, from cross-back chairs with faux leather or fabric seats to fully upholstered faux leather or fabric dining chairs in soft grey tones. Stylish, versatile and thoughtfully finished, the Freeport range is ideal for both classic and contemporary interiors. The collection extends beyond dining with a comprehensive selection of coordinating pieces, including sideboards, TV and entertainment unit, coffee table, console table and a nest of two tables, allowing you to create a cohesive look throughout your home.
