Calaggio

Sofa Collection

The Calaggio sofa collection is an impressive range that combines contemporary style with outstanding comfort. Designed with high back cushions, excellent lumbar support, and elegant flared slim armrests, it offers the perfect blend of support and sophistication. This versatile collection is available in a wide choice of sizes, with both static and electric reclining options to suit your lifestyle. You can choose from an extensive selection of fabrics and leather grades in a variety of colours, allowing you to create a sofa that perfectly complements your home. Built for long-lasting comfort, the seats feature elastic belts for superior support, while the cushions are crafted from stress-resistant polyurethane density and finished with Dacron hollow soft polyester fibre for a soft yet durable feel. The arms are padded with the same fibre for added comfort, while the back cushions are filled with microfibre, delivering excellent comfort and support. For those looking for a bespoke solution, modular options are also available, so you can customise your sofa size to fit your exact requirements. The Calaggio collection is the ideal choice for anyone seeking a stylish sofa range that delivers comfort, flexibility, and quality.
