

Angus Sofa Collection

Angus Sofa Collection

The Angus sofa collection is a striking, contemporary range designed for those who appreciate clean lines, tailored detail, and exceptional comfort. With its distinctive square silhouette, Angus brings a bold yet refined presence to any living space. This bespoke collection offers complete flexibility, with options including static sofas, electric reclining models, and modular pieces that can be configured to suit your layout, whether you're designing a compact arrangement or a spacious corner sofa. Available in a wide selection of premium fabrics and luxurious leathers, Angus can be customised across a host of grades and colours, allowing you to create a look that perfectly complements your interior. The sleek black metal legs come as standard, adding a modern finishing touch. Attention to detail sets Angus apart. Elegant line detailing along the sides and backrests, combined with refined stitch work throughout, enhances its tailored aesthetic and gives the sofa a sophisticated edge. Designed with comfort in mind, the Angus collection provides excellent support for the back, neck, and head, making it as practical as it is stylish. Electric reclining models also feature integrated USB ports, offering added convenience for modern living. The Angus Sofa Collection is where structured design meets everyday comfort, delivering a statement piece that's built for both style and relaxation.
