Sofa Collection

The Ladina Sofa Collection combines clean, contemporary styling with exceptional comfort, making it a versatile choice for modern living spaces. With its slim arms, neat armrests and well-proportioned high back cushions, Ladina offers a refined, uncluttered look while still delivering excellent support. Available in both static and electric reclining options, the collection is designed with everyday comfort in mind. Electric models have adjustable lumbar and head support along with USB ports, allowing you to relax and stay connected with ease. Comfort is at the heart of the Ladina design, with foam seat cushions providing structured support and 100% loose fibre back cushions offering a softer, more relaxed feel. Known for its excellent lumbar support, this range is ideal for those who value both comfort and style. Available in a wide choice of fabric and leather grades and colours, the Ladina collection is a pleasant and practical sofa that can be tailored to complement any home.
