Egoitaliano Odette

Sofa Collection

The Odette Sofa Range from Egoitaliano is a beautifully crafted collection that combines contemporary Italian design with a warm, inviting feel. Designed and made in Italy, this stunning bespoke range reflects the signature style of Egoitaliano, effortlessly blending modern aesthetics with everyday comfort to create a sofa that feels both stylish and homely. Available in a variety of sizes, the Odette range offers both static and electric reclining options, allowing you to tailor your seating to suit your lifestyle. Upholstered in a wide selection of fabric, microfibre and leather grades and colours, each piece can be customised to complement your interior perfectly. Expertly engineered for comfort and durability, the seats feature a series of steel springs anchored to the structure, providing excellent support and resilience. The seat and armrest cushions are crafted from polyurethane foam with a self-extinguishing Dacron layer, while the backrests are filled with siliconised polyester for a softer, more relaxed feel. Finished with sleek black legs, the Odette sofa range delivers a perfect balance of Italian craftsmanship, contemporary design and luxurious comfort.
